Dear

Many thanks for the account of your recent talks, which I have read with great interest. Your report is being passed on to Allen Dulles and Frank Wisner, who will, I am sure, also find it most interesting and informative.

Thanks too for the invitation, but from the way things look right now, I don't know when it will be possible for me to travel that far from home. Something always seems to pop up at the last minute, even when I plan on a trip to New York.

It is hoped that you like your new post, and that everything is running smoothly. Let us hear from you again.

Faithfully,

W. F. Buckley
